

Happy New Year!

January 2018

Once again another year has come & gone. I'm excited to see what 2018 has in store for us. There's really not anything we can't handle. We live, we learn, we love, we remember and we go on to make even more memories.

Thanks to all who came out to see Santa & Jeanie's Funny Farm pets. It was a good time.

On Monday Jan. 8th we're going to have our friend Lindsey come in & do chair massages for anyone who'd like to relieve a little tension & stress. She'll be here from 9:00 am until noon. The charge will be $1.00 a minute. Please come in & treat yourself – you deserve it! Saturday January 20th our friend Charles will be here to give us a demonstration on our Traeger grills. There are SO many things you can do with a Traeger grill & of course there will be food samples! 😊

I'm sure you all know by now of the new policies that took effect on Jan. 1, 2018. On Dec. 6th of 2017 the board passed a resolution to no longer have free grain bank. All grain will be charged the same .04 a bushel a month. Another resolution that was passed was, we will no longer extend credit in our store. Acceptable forms of payment will be: cash, check, credit card, milk check deducts & pre-pay accounts. If you have any questions about this, please feel free to call us at 320-387-2770.

I realize what a struggle you are going thru as farmers. You work day & night busting your hump, it's very hard work. It's rewarding in SO many ways yet lately I can see why people are getting depressed & frustrated. Hold on, good things will be coming your way. Make sure you take the time to be thankful for the good things that happen each day. Its way more uplifting to count our blessings than to concentrate on all the negative things going on in our lives. One simple thing that we can do is to push up our cows feed more than once a day, just like us they benefit more from several small meals vs. 1 big one. Let's work together to get thru the rough times & celebrate the good ones together as well.

Happy New Year,

Gilly & The Gang.
